

ABOUT YOUR COACHES

Jennifer Derevjanik

Coach Derevjanik is the Head Coach for the Girls Varsity Basketball team at Bound Brook High School. She led the Crusaders in winning the Central NJ Group 1 Championship twice, winning Conference Champs as well as NJ Group 1 State Championship, a feat never achieved in Bound Brook history.

Before Bound Brook, Derevjanik spent a year at Wagner College as an assistant coach. As a player, Derevjanik played for George Mason University and after college she played 5 years in the WNBA. While in the WNBA she played two years with the Connecticut Sun alongside Olympian Lindsay Whelan. Following her time with the Sun, she spent 3 years with the Phoenix Mercury alongside Olympian Diana Taurasi. While playing in Phoenix she won a WNBA Championship. Derevjanik also played professionally in Europe for seven seasons.

Her experience and knowledge of the game will help reinforce existing skills while pushing players beyond their comfort zone to advance their game.

Denzel Sanders

Coach Sanders is the Head Coach for the Girls Junior Varsity Basketball at Bound Brook High School. He has also coached 3rd-4th grade girls recreation, 5th-6th grade and 7th - 8th grade girls travel teams. Sanders has also coached the Bound Brook boys varsity teams fall league team for coach Melesurgo. This past season he served as an assistant on the Bound Brook High School's girls varsity team. As a player, Sanders played at Bound Brook High School from 2006-2010 and opted not to continue playing after high school and started coaching.
