The businesses are all slanted to one ethnicity. The only decent business is Lou's sub shop. Friendly business owners. Always a greeting and a little chatter about local events. The explosion of high rise apartments have totally ruined the small town feel that is unique to this town. It's over the top!!! 64	I would like to see any regular retail shops and services, I currently do not ever go downtown because there is nothing there for me and it is uncomfortable to be down there. Many buildings empty, and other shops I would never seek out. We need some shops that are not just Latino operated, and we must get rid of the seedy bars. The dunk in donuts on Main Street has drug deals going on, I only know because I use the traits station and that is the only reason I go downtown. Even the train station is in miserable repair - Plainfield has a nicer and mor recently updated station. If this were addressed it would help the image of Bound Brook immensely and be a good start toward a positive change.	11/12/2016 6:42 PM
