Re: July 2023 Community Policing Report

- Stop at a Lemonade Stand – While on patrol, Officer Brown came across a pop-up lemonade stand. He was quick to park his car and step out and show support for three of our young residents. Officer Brown may be one of BBPD's newest patrolmen but he has immediately taken to our community first philosophy.
- Car stop on a young motorist – Officer Rodriguez was able to interact with a young Bound Brook resident as he operated his own battery powered police car. Officer Rodriguez got to show young Joshua around a real police car and spent quality time with an aspiring police officer!
- Bound Brook Fire Department Carnival – Officers took the opportunity to mingle with members of the community at the 2023 Bound Brook Fire Department Carnival. Taking time to walk around, play games and share smiles with residents young and old, this served as a great opportunity to hang out with the community in a fun relaxed setting.
- Somerset County Youth Police Academy – Sergeant Pikulin was assigned as a Senior Drill instructor at the Somerset County Police Academy Police Youth Week. He was lucky enough to be able to help guide three of Bound Brook's future leaders (and hopefully Police Officers!). The week consisted of a packed schedule that led "recruits" through a myriad of topics that helped to give them a sample of life as a Police Officer. This experience is once in a lifetime for both for instructors and students. We are so proud of our three incoming BBHS freshmen for taking on such a bold week!
- Somerset County Youth Police Academy K9 Demo – Lieutenant Gianotto attended the Somerset County Police Academy Police Youth Week with his K9 partner Crusader to give a demonstration to the young recruits. Lieutenant Gianotto's wealth of knowledge and enthusiasm grasps kid's attention in an incredible way as they are able to learn and see K9 Crusader perform.

Respectfully Submitted,

Sergeant Robert Pikulin
